Fine Machinery.

Mr. T. B. Creed, of Winchester, state agent for Carr, Scott & Co., delivered to Leslie T. Bradshaw a 18-horse power traction engine and saw mill, and to Dr. Amon an engine of 35-horse power and saw mill this week. The machines will begin work at once, one on Paint Lick and the other on Sugar Creek. They are high-class outfits.

Hon. Geo. Gilbert Announces.

The Hon. George G. Gilbert, of Shelbyville, announces that he will make the race for renomination and re-election to Congress from this district. Mr. Gilbert says he will enter upon an active campaign at once and will make at least six speeches in every county of the district. To all of these appointments he will invite his opponents. Mr. Gilbert will stand on his official record.

Remember This.

Those using hose for street sprinkling purposes must remember that they are only permitted to throw water to middle of street, not clear across. If you sprinkle the entire street you are not only liable to fine for misuse of water, but you will have to pay extra. This is a sad blow to the fellow across the way who "figured" upon his neighbor keeping the dust down.

Some Nice Fish.

About three years ago, Mr. John E. Stormes placed a large number of bass minnows in the Ward pool, on Lexington street. The water is posted and no fishing allowed, so the fish have been uninterrupted. A few days ago, Mr. Stormes decided to investigate, and he and Frank McMillen took a dip net and caught one. They have grown rapidly, and the pool is filled with them. An effort will now be made to catch and place them in Lake Placid, but how to do it is a proposition. The Ward pool is fifteen or twenty feet deep, the ledges affording such protection as will prevent the use of seines. There is no way to drain it, so its up to the know-it-alls to devise means by which the bass can be captured.

Will Close Out.

The Record regrets very much to announce the fact that Mr. John M. Logan has decided to close out the stock of the Logan Dry Goods Co., and will accept a position in another city. He has been in business in Lancaster for many years, and met with great success, but he has an offer of a place where the work is not so confining, and at better pay. Mr. Logan is one of the best business men Lancaster has. He has been in the mercantile business all his life, being on the road most of the time. His experience in the big cities taught him that the only way to get business, be up-to-date, was to advertise in newspapers, and his liberal use of space in The Record proved his fine judgment in this way. He is not a "fence post" or barn door advertiser, but kept his business before the people in a legitimate and business like manner. The immense stock will be closed out at once, or if a buyer can be found, the stock will be sold in a lump. It is a splendid opening for the right party.

School Exercises.

The class sermon will be preached to the graduates at the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening, at eight o'clock. Rev. E. W. McCorkle, of Nicholasville will preach the sermon. Class day exercises will be conducted at the Graded School chapel Thursday, the 19th, at 2:30 p. m. The commencement exercises will take place in the Christian church Tuesday evening the 24th, at 8:30. On Monday afternoon there will be a program given by pupils from grades 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5. Tuesday afternoon there will be another program from pupils in grades 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10. Wednesday there will be a school picnic on the lawn. Mrs. Belle Burnside's class will furnish music for all the entertainments except the commencement exercises, at which time Mrs. Taylor will render a program on the pipe organ at Christian church. The Board of Education, patrons and friends of the school are heartily invited to co-operate in all of these exercises and especially to lend their presence to the picnic on Wednesday and by their baskets and company to make this an occasion long to be remembered. There will be enough of school work, oral and written, scattered through the closing week to give some idea of what is done during daily recitation, and it is hoped that the week with its sparkle of wit and humor will draw teachers, parents and pupils closer together and in this way revert to the future good of the school. Come to every exercise and entertainment.

The Ladies Aid Society, of New Antioch church will give a strawberry supper, Saturday night, June 4th.

A fire-company was organized Tuesday night, and the laddies are watching for a chance to show how they can handle the hose.

Lost, dog collar with brass trimmings, tag check and name, "A. H. Rice's Bruzer." Reward for return to The Record office.

No, boys, when a pretty girl turns her head, it is not to dodge the smell of that drink you have just had, but to keep you from smelling the spring onions she has just eaten at dinner.

Communion Services.

Communion services will be held at the Methodist church Sunday morning at usual hour. Preparatory services will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at 3 o'clock and Friday evening at 7:30.

K. P. Decoration.

Garrard Lodge, No. 29, Knights of Pythias, will hold its annual decoration services on Sunday, the 29th. While full details have not yet been made, it is more than likely that services will be held at the Court House, to conclude with decoration of graves.

They Can Have the Whole Shop. Courier-Journal:—In Louisville and the larger cities of Kentucky the ministers of these localities have general meetings Monday mornings in some pastor's study, but at Lancaster, Ky. they meet in the office of the Lancaster Record, where they are welcomed by the accomplished editor, Louis Landrum, vice president of the Kentucky Press Association.

Young Siler Dies.

Mr. Mat Siler and family have deep sympathy in the death of their son, Walter, which occurred Tuesday afternoon. The young man had been ill for only a few days, suffering from an abscess in his throat. He was a bright boy, and had many friends among his acquaintances. The blow is a heavy one to Mr. Siler, who buried his brother only last Monday.

Law Firm Dissolved.

The Times says the law firm of Bradley & Batson has been dissolved the result of an amicable agreement between the partners, who found they could best conduct their practice otherwise. Mr. Batson will hereafter be associated with Mr. Cary, while Gov. Bradley will continue for the present to practice alone.

Examination.

Examinations of pupils completing the common school course will be held at my office Friday and Saturday, May 13 and 14. Examinations for certificates for white teachers will be held at court house Friday and Saturday, May 20 and 21. Examinations for certificates for colored teachers will be held at court house Friday and Saturday, May 27 and 28.

5-13-14 Mrs. Eliza Walker, Co. Supt.

Splendid Musical Organization. It will be good news to lovers of fine music to learn that the famous Saxton's band has been completely reorganized and is now composed of the best of professional musicians. While the inimitable Henry Saxton will lead and direct, yet the management is in new hands, and a band second to none in the South has been organized. Any number of men can be furnished on short notice, and those desiring the best music for all occasions should address the Lexington Military Band and Orchestra, Lexington, Ky.

Disgusting.

A few nights since, the writer was in the telephone exchange, and Ross Bastin, who was at the board, told us how some people "rubber-necked in" where more than one phone was on a line. "Now, listen," said he, "When I ring on this line, count the receivers you hear taken down." We did so, and in less than a minute we distinctly heard four receivers come down. Each knew it was not their ring, but simply wanted to hear something which did not concern them. This practice is as dishonorable as that of listening through a key-hole, and any person who does the latter would graze goats on his grand-ma's grave.

John C. Siler Suicides.

His many friends were greatly shocked to learn of the suicide of John C. Siler, which occurred at his home near Rowland Sunday. Siler left no note of explanation, and no cause of the rash act can be learned. About two years ago, he engaged in a fierce pistol duel with Dr. C. Edwin Poyntz, at Paint Lick, Poyntz being killed and Siler receiving severe wounds from which he never fully recovered. He married a daughter of the late James McCauley, and was widely connected in Garrard county. He moved to Lincoln only a short time since. He leaves a widow and one child. The remains were interred at the Lancaster Cemetery Monday morning.

An exchange says every little while we notice that some man fixed on a good farm sells and thinks he will look for a better country and after trying the several gardens of Eden, as set forth by real estate agents and corporations, comes back to his old stamping ground and buys his old farm back at a good increase in price over that which he received. It is always best to rent the old place for a year or so and prospect. You may want to come back.

Board of Health.

At a meeting of the Garrard county board of health, held at Dr. Acton's office April 20, 1904, the following resolutions were adopted. In order to maintain the health of our city and to insure its prosperity, it is necessary to enforce all sanitary laws regulating the public health.

Resolved, that the Mayor of the city of Lancaster, be ordered to have removed all garbage, filth, ash piles, loose dirt, old papers, etc., from the public square, principle streets and alleys of the city limits, to a place prepared by the proper officers of the city, for the dumping of said filth, etc.

Resolved, that business men doing business on the public square and principle streets be prohibited from depositing any filth, garbage, old paper and ashes upon the street or public square under penalty for each offense after notification by the Chief of Police, that they be required to prepare barrels or boxes for the deposit of such material and that said barrels or boxes shall be removed daily to some place beyond the city limits.

Resolved, that the Mayor be requested to enforce the town or city ordinances of the town pertaining to the health laws. Especially the law requiring the removal of hogs and hog pens on or before the 1st day of May of each year.

That the Mayor see to the enforcement of the law requiring the cleansing of all privies and privy vaults, out houses and other sources of filth.

We also command to the public in general that all fences, out houses etc be white washed with lime.

Accepts Call.

Danville Advocate:—Rev. J. M. Bruce left today for Horse Cave, where he has accepted a call to the First Baptist Church of that place. His friends will be sorry to learn of his leaving this section, but wish him well in the new field of labor.

Crab Orchard Springs.

Dr. E. G. Dick, of Crab Orchard Springs, was here a few days since, and made The Record office a most pleasant call. He told us that every cent of profits has been applied to improvements on the premises, and the approaching season will find the buildings and grounds in better shape than they have been for years. The public will be delighted to learn that Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Willis will continue to run and manage the resort, as they are the best managers that any summer resort ever had.

Another Successful Sale.

The second sale of lots, held by Jas. I. Hamilton, Saturday, was as satisfactory as the first. About all are sold now, and we look for some building to be done. About thirteen were sold Saturday, at an average of $150. They were bought by W. S. Beazley, J. C. Thompson, Dr. Kinnaird, George Wright, Malcolm House, and other good people who will see that another Battle Row is not allowed. Work on the new street would begin at once, but for the fact that at present the town is in close financial straits by reason of the construction of water works, and the further fact that the people must pay a $1,000 damage suit, mentioned in a recent issue of The Record. Of course these obstacles will soon be overcome, and a good substantial street made, but it will be delayed, as will also the macadamizing of other streets until the $1,000 judgment is paid. It is the intention of the City Council to push the matter, and thereby show the Buckeye people that their trade is appreciated. The Record will now urge the Council to put forth every effort to get the street completed, and we believe they will do so.

CENTRAL RECORD.

LOUIS LANDRAM.

Second-Class Mail Matter.

Lancaster, Ky., May 13, 1904.

The latest of the many moves to drive capital out of Kentucky is the fight to burden the banks, both State and National with more taxes. In Garrard and several adjoining counties, more suits have been brought to tax the banks on some flimsy pretext, which, if sustained by the courts will work a hardship on the institutions calculated to cause those having money invested therein to seriously consider the plan of putting their money in investments in other States where it will not be completely "killed" by over-taxation. It is all right and proper for banks to pay taxes on what is just and liable, but the recent fight made on the institutions looks more like persecution than carrying out the law, as one person connected with the matter put it. We frequently hear people and newspapers howling about "developing the great resources of Kentucky." That's all good enough, but when the money to come from every dollar is taxed and re-taxed until it is almost a burden to have a dollar? The railroads have been taxed to the limit, yes, over the limit, yet there is a howl for more. Now the fight is turned to the banking business, and as stated above, if it is kept up, moneyed men will be forced to place their coin in other states. Some banks, like some people, are unreasonable in their dealings, but it is a bad idea to make the good suffer for the misdoings of the bad. Banks are a necessity and a convenience to business men and farmers, and the more the better. The establishment and maintenance of both banks and railroads is the duty of the people, and we trust the fight against them will be called off. If enough money to maintain the state government cannot be raised by the usual manner of taxation, the "Grand Old Commonwealth" had better shut up shop.

The project to make of Independence hall in Philadelphia a revolutionary mausoleum for early American heroes is a form of patriotic centralization to which state pride will never assent, says an eastern writer. Would Kentucky consent to the removal of the dust of Henry Clay from her borders? Could Virginia be induced to let the remains of Washington leave Mount Vernon, or Boston consent to the patriotic desecration of Copp's Hill or where Hancock lies? The departed heroes serve a better sentimental use in their present resting places. Hamilton in Trinity cemetery, at the head of Wall street, hard by his old home, is more appropriate to New York than to Philadelphia. Paul Revere's journey from Faneuil hall and the old North church would figuratively be out of his sphere of patriotic influence. They are best where they lie, both as stimulating local remembrance and as objective points for summer pilgrimages.

Many manufacturers are prohibiting the use of union labels on their goods, and many employers are beginning to ignore the labor unions. The working people have no right to blame but themselves for this, as they have tried the union question to an extreme and, to use an old expression, "hanged themselves with their own rope." Organized labor is all right when the organization is for the purpose of helping the sick and needy, but when it comes to dictating to employers, its time to call a halt.

Spring has "lingered in the lap of winter" until winter must have corns worn upon her knees. The oft quoted "oldest inhabitant" says the slowly-dying winter has been the most prolonged and severest in history. And, worse of all, the weather has been bitter cold, some days reaching a Bradley-Yerkes handshake temperature.

It is reported that a company is being organized at Lexington with $50,000 capital for the purpose of importing reliable and industrious servants. A thoroughly reliable and industrious servant is a scarce article these days, and one who can be depended upon would easily command a salary of $50,000 a year.

The Kentucky editors have all sorts of nice invitations for entertainment at the World's Fair, and a splendid trip is ahead. Kentucky editors have done more for the big show than have the quill-drivers of any other state, however, and are entitled to the best in the shop.

One of the World's Fair attractions is the largest and most powerful search-light in the world. President Paul Moore has engaged it for the week the Kentucky editors attend, and will use it to find and bring in the scribes who get lost in each day's shuffle.

A man has been sent to the penitentiary, in Minnesota, for stealing a locomotive. That's usually the way. Had he stolen the entire railroad, or robbed its treasury, he would have been given a large slice of corn, and henceforth fed on the fat of the land.

Curt Jett, the mountain desperado, has decided to dismiss his appeal for a new trial and serve out the sentence of life imprisonment. At the completion of the term, he will be scorched for other crimes.

If St. Louis hotel managers continue the present high rates, we poor folks who attend the Fair will be forced to live on our accustomed diet, viz: stewed prunes.

The price of sugar continues to advance. A few upward bounds in the price of this necessary ingredient in the festive Kentucky Colonel will be forced to take his'n straight.

A Chicago policeman lost part of his uniform while in church. The sermon up that way must be exceptionally long and dull to cause a hearer to sleep so soundly.

Rev. W M Stallings has begun preaching a series of sermons at the Fork church on Sunday mornings, on "What Baptists Believe."

While plowing on the farm of H D Aldridge, Leonard Pollard plowed up a mole which was quite a curiosity. It was white, with a black streak around its neck. Those who saw it say it was a beauty, and they never saw one like it before.

A few days ago Mr Millard Rout had the misfortune to be kicked by a mule. Mr R was very much frightened at the blow, and he was badly injured, but he was glad to find his injuries were not serious and he is now able to be out.

A TRIBUTE.

Lexington Leader:—Death has been busy in this community, bringing sorrow and desolation to many hearts. In the long line of processions to the City of the Dead during the week, the body of Mrs Ella Landram Dunlap was borne, and on a sunny slope of an evergreen hill was laid to rest by gentle hands, beneath a mound of flowers. She was cut off in the prime of womanhood, after many years of invalidism; yet her deeds of kindness, of hospitality and of mercy were not measured by the sufferings of the body. She was especially beloved by the young people whom she made welcome at all times, and her generous spirit never lacked objects upon whose welfare to expend itself. She was gifted by nature with personal beauty, a vigorous intellect, superior musical ability, and was a constant reader and a fine literary critic. Her fund of humor was irresistible, and few possessed her readiness of wit and repartee. She diffused about her a degree of magnetism that made her companionship agreeable, and the friends she made were friends for life.

When the troops were mobilized near Lexington during the Spanish-American war, Mrs Dunlap was a most untiring worker as a member of the Soldiers' Relief Society. She was at camp early and late, doing whatever was required for the suffering soldiers forgetting her own frail health in ministering to their necessities. Her energy was unflagging and the usefulness of her career was limited only by her physical infirmities.

The end came at sunrise in her pretty home in Davidson Court, after a week's illness, during which her wonderful recuperative powers finally succumbed, surrounded by loved ones, her probations was over, and the mysteries of the unseen world opened to her departed spirit.

"There is no death! The stars go down to rise upon some fairer shore, And bright in heaven's jeweled crown they shine forevermore."

To see this tribute paid is a satisfaction to one who knows truly what the thoughtfulness of this lovely woman gave of help and encouragement in homes where work, fatigue and the need of friends was most deeply felt.

The funeral services for Mrs Dunlap were simple, but beautiful and impressive, conducted at her home by Rev Robert O Kirkwood, of the Second Presbyterian church, and Dean Lee of Christ Church Cathedral. A quartet from the Second Presbyterian church, of which Mrs Dunlap was a faithful member sang, "Lead Kindly Light," "Abide With Me." Mrs Adams sang a solo "Sometime, Sometime We'll Understand." Mrs Dunlap's husband, Mr Wood G Dunlap, is the highest officer in the Elks Lodge, and the pall bearers were among his friends in the Elks, as follows: Messrs W P Kimball, F Clay Elkin, John R Allen, Alex G Morgan, George C Morgan and Charles Kerr. The Elks also sent a beautiful tribute of flowers.

Among the friends and kinsmen, who came from other cities to attend the funeral were:
From Lancaster, Mr and Mrs Louis Landram; Mrs John Gashwiler, of Danville; Mrs A J Alexander, of Woodbury; Coy Wilmore and Mr Buford, of Nicholasville; Judge Burnside of Lancaster.

Whooping Cough.

"In the spring of 1901 my child had whooping cough," says Mrs D W Capps, of Capps, Ala. "I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think this is the best remedy I have ever seen for whooping cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and frequency of the coughing spell and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Frieble's Drug Store. 1m

From the Chapin, S C News: Truly in the spring my wife and I were aken with diarrhoea and so severe were the pains that we called a physician, who prescribed for us, but his medicines failed to give any relief. A friend who had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy on hand gave each of us a dose and we at once felt the effects. I procured a bottle and before using the entire contents we were entirely cured. It is a wonderful remedy and should be found in every household. H C Bailey, Editor. ### LITTLE WOMEN.

Nature dates womanhood from the period when the womanly function is first established, so that nature's little women are school-girls, shop-girls, etc. And therein lies a danger. This period is one of the most important in a woman's life, the mental effort of study, the physical effort of labor, are doubly exhausting at this season, and coupled with neglect or ignorance are often responsible for irregularity and other womanly ailments.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription may be relied upon to carry the woman safely through this period, as it does through maternity and the later change of life. This great medicine establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"Two years ago my daughter's health began to fail," writes Mrs. Dan Hall, of Broadhead, Green Co., Wis. "Everything that could be thought of was done to help her, but it was of no use. She kept failing and I gave up, thinking she must die. I must say, Doctor, that only for your 'Favorite Prescription' my daughter would have been in her grave to-day. When she had taken one-half bottle the natural function was established, and we bought another one, making only two bottles in all, and she completely recovered. Since then she is as well as can be."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advice, in paper covers, is sent FREE on receipt of 21 cent postage stamp to cover expense of mailing ONLY. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Land, Stock, Crops.

Corn is not good as a regular diet for mares in foal.

Oats, rye and pastures are progressing moderately well.

Very little corn was planted during last week; that previously planted is coming up slowly.

A bushel of wheat, by actual count, has been found to contain 869,720 grains.

Sheep may be raised with profit, as they will feed on weeds which few other animals will eat.

Keep horses well groomed and clean and their skin will remain healthy, while the appearance of their hair will add to their value.

A good way to settle the disputes with your neighbors over your turkeys is to mark each one some night with any good mark of leg bands.

Fruit is not quite so badly damaged as was at first thought, but there will be a very small crop. Some early varieties of strawberries are injured.

It is said that between 700 and 800 hogsheads of tobacco would cover the combined stocks of both the Cincinnati and Louisville markets. This is the lowest record since 1884.

Advices from Mexico indicate that sufficient wheat will be raised in that country to supply the home demand. Last year 1,200,000 bushels were imported into Mexico from the United States.

Those who covered their strawberry vines with leaves last fall, or other litter, should watch them closely at this time of year, and as soon as the plants begin to grow the litter should be removed.

Beef cattle, when dehorned, may be shipped a great distance with possibility of them injuring one another reduced to the minimum. Owners of herds should bear this in mind when assorting calves for future markets.

Tobacco plants are small, but doing fairly well; in the northern counties they are very late, just coming up in some beds. Reports indicate that plants will be scarce in some localities.

Hodgenville Herald:—Ford & Burch of Athertonville, have closed one of the largest cattle deals ever made in the county. They sold to Hatter, Mattingly & Co., of the Boubon Stock Yards, Louisville, 343 head of fat cattle, averaging 1,100 pounds at from $4.25 to $4.50 per hundred. The total amount of the sale will exceed $20,000.

It pays in the long run to plant young trees. It, of course, takes more time, but there is the advantage of being able to train them to any desired shape. If large trees are transplanted it is generally necessary to cut away much of the top and that permanently injures their value and appearance.

You cannot have everything in one fowl. Examples of good, general purpose fowls are the Plymouth Rock and Wyandotte. They are equal to the Shorthorn in cattle. They are good for meat production and pretty good for egg production. Probably better meat producers can be found on the one hand and more prolific laying specialists on the other, but none are better as general purpose fowls.

Advices from Washington show that the exports of flour from the United States during the year 1903 amounted to nearly 20,000,000 barrels, were the largest in the history of our commerce. In 1892 and '93 the exports of flour were worth more than in 1903, although the quantity for each of these years was less. The figures for 1903 in detail are as follows: Total barrels of flour exported 19,551,411; total value, $75,188,050. The exports of wheat for the same period amounted to $59,329,441, which indicates that considerably more than half of our surplus wheat was made into flour before being shipped abroad.

Total sales of leaf tobacco on the Louisville market January 1 to April 30, 1904, were 51,487 hhds, against 53,676 hhds sold during corresponding period last year. Rejections Jan. 1st to April 30th, this year, were 5,528 hhds against 9,558 hhds rejected during corresponding period last year. Of the total sales 32,521 hhds were dark tobacco and 18,965 hhds were dark tobacco. Up to close of April, this year, we had sold 43,205 hhds of the 1903 crop, against 62,518 hhds of 1902 crop sold up to April 30th last year. Total receipts Jan. 1 to April 30, '04, were 37,995 hhds against 41,497 hhds received during corresponding period last year. Total stocks held at this market on April 30, 1904, were 12,119 hhds on corresponding date last year. Stocks were reduced during April 2,622 hhds.

Pastures are injured more by keeping the stock on the land too long than from any other cause. If eaten off too closely the grass is more exposed in winter, and if the ground is too bare in summer the blades and roots of the plants will be scorched during a very dry season. If enough grass is left to protect the soil and cover it the pastures will be more productive. Pastures frequently become exhausted by the constant grazing, when an occasional rest and an application of fertilizer will not only renew them, but largely increase the yield of grass.

Many of the more common digestive troubles of the horse are directly traceable to some imperfection of the teeth. Neglect of these often leads to imperfect mastication, impoverished condition, irritability, digestive disturbances and eye derangements. When dentition goes on regularly, the colt gets 16 new teeth, eight in each jaw, between its second and third years. Therefore, the mouth should be often carefully examined at this period, and all irregularities adjusted. If the colt's system seems to be in a languid condition, this will retard dentition, and should be remedied by extra feeding, especially of oats.

"Do It Today." The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it today." That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it today—and let that remedy be Dr. Beecher's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. 1 Aug.

Kind words are cheap but often they accomplish more than money.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism. "My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move, at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by Fribley's Drug Store. 1m

Sire of three with records better than 2:30, Champion show horse of Kentucky and leading sire of high-class road horses and teams. $25 TO INSURE A LIVING COLT, and a good one at that.

I claim it to be the best interest of the owners of mares of Merce or adjoining counties to breed to Red Leaf—1st, because he is not only a sire of high-class and bred and for sale; 2nd, because he is a sire of mares of any stallion in Merce or adjoining counties. 3rd, because his colts have taken more premiums than those of any stallion in Merce or adjoining counties. 4th, because he has a better record as a race horse, having won 10 out of 12 races, and a better record as a show horse, having won 20 out of 25 shows, than any stallion in Merce or adjoining counties. 5th, because Red Leaf is the only horse sired by a horse with a record of 2:18 (S. F. Clay) who has sired colts with records better than 2:30, and with a dam (Lady Mary) who was a winner, and whose grand dam (Soprano) was the greatest brood mare in the world, having 11 in the list, and whose 2nd dam (C. F. Clay) sold for $8,000, and whose 3rd dam (Red Leaf) sold for three years for $10,000 and a fourth for a half interest, and who himself himself sired 11 colts to sell for over $80,000 as high as $24,000 and teams from $1,500 to $3,000, in Merce or adjoining counties. 6th, that three of Red Leaf's colts were ever trained for speed and they all took records. 7th, but one of Red Leaf's colts was ever raced, and he started in 11 or 12 races, winning first in one and second in all the rest, and he won the Yearling and showed miles in 2:23 and won a sensational horse had he lived. 8th, Red Leaf has sired more high-class, high-priced teams than any stallion in Kentucky in the past two years. 9th, I can show several of those sold for $5,000 for a pair of mares. Name of those sold five years old, and most of them under three years old.

Now I say if you want a trotter, Red Leaf is bred to get them, as his sire is one of the world's greatest sires of extreme speed, and his dam a great producer, and she by one of the world's greatest sires of speed (Red Wilkes), and his sire's dam the greatest brood mare in the world. If you want a show horse, he has proven he can get them of the highest quality, and he has sired more high-class, high-priced colts in regular and sweepstakes and in all the shows in the world than any other stallion. If you want a business horse, he can get them that will sell for the highest dollars, and his filly is sure to be a great brood mare. If these are not facts, what are? I have a good Black Jack, to stand at $5 to insure a living colt.

Name of those sold five years old, and most of them under three years old.

Now I say if you want a trotter, Red Leaf is bred to get them, as his sire is one of the world's greatest sires of extreme speed, and his dam a great producer, and she by one of the world's greatest sires of speed (Red Wilkes), and his sire's dam the greatest brood mare in the world. If you want a show horse, he has proven he can get them of the highest quality, and he has sired more high-class, high-priced colts in regular and sweepstakes and in all the shows in the world than any other stallion. If you want a business horse, he can get them that will sell for the highest dollars, and his filly is sure to be a great brood mare. If these are not facts, what are? I have a good Black Jack, to stand at $5 to insure a living colt.

RED LEAF

Sire of three with records better than 2:30, Champion show horse of Kentucky and leading sire of high-class road horses and teams. $25 TO INSURE A LIVING COLT, and a good one at that.

I claim it to be the best interest of the owners of mares of Merce or adjoining counties to breed to Red Leaf—1st, because he is not only a sire of high-class and bred and for sale; 2nd, because he is a sire of mares of any stallion in Merce or adjoining counties. 3rd, because his colts have taken more premiums than those of any stallion in Merce or adjoining counties. 4th, because he has a better record as a race horse, having won 10 out of 12 races, and a better record as a show horse, having won 20 out of 25 shows, than any stallion in Merce or adjoining counties. 5th, because Red Leaf is the only horse sired by a horse with a record of 2:18 (S. F. Clay) who has sired colts with records better than 2:30, and with a dam (Lady Mary) who was a winner, and whose grand dam (Soprano) was the greatest brood mare in the world, having 11 in the list, and whose 2nd dam (C. F. Clay) sold for $8,000, and whose 3rd dam (Red Leaf) sold for three years for $10,000 and a fourth for a half interest, and who himself himself sired 11 colts to sell for over $80,000 as high as $24,000 and teams from $1,500 to $3,000, in Merce or adjoining counties. 6th, that three of Red Leaf's colts were ever trained for speed and they all took records. 7th, but one of Red Leaf's colts was ever raced, and he started in 11 or 12 races, winning first in one and second in all the rest, and he won the Yearling and showed miles in 2:23 and won a sensational horse had he lived. 8th, Red Leaf has sired more high-class, high-priced teams than any stallion in Kentucky in the past two years. 9th, I can show several of those sold for $5,000 for a pair of mares. Name of those sold five years old, and most of them under three years old.
